I have been appreciating and creating art since early childhood—painting, and designing clothes, purses, and jewelry. My inspiration comes from nature, my children, my dreams, my exotic Jewish Yemenite family story, and from the rainbow of cultures that surrounded me in my life's path through the Middle East and Europe.

Creating art is my way of exploring my innermost emotions, dreams, and wishes. It is my way of understanding and responding to the world around me. It is my way of granting joy, energy, peace, hope and beauty to all those who touch my world and my life.

Orly Ofry Ruben is an international artist whose work spans a spectrum of styles and cultures. She employs oil paint, acrylic, watercolor and mixed media, to create art on canvas, wood, paper, furniture and walls. Her paintings are featured in private collections throughout the US, Germany, Austria, Italy and Israel.

Orly was born in Israel to parents who emigrated from Yemen, as part of Operation Magic Carpet. Upon graduating from high school and serving her military duty as an officer, she moved to Munich and then Ulm, Germany, to continue her studies at the University.

After graduating with a degree in architectural design, Orly worked for a German firm as an architect and designer on projects in Europe and Asia. During this time, she created, exhibited, and sold her paintings throughout Europe and Israel. After 15 years in Europe, Orly returned to Israel where she engaged in interior design projects, as well as painting and jewelry making.

Orly recently moved to Los Angeles with her husband and two beautiful daughters, where she continues to bring her European eclectic interior design visions and paintings into American homes.

Orly is a member of Women Painters West, Valley Artists Guild, Southern California Women's Caucus for Art, Collage Artists of America, and LA Experimental Artists.
